"The Big Kid and Basketball...and the Lessons He Taught His Father & Coach" tells the story of a child who overcame the impact of bullying through resilience, sports, faith, and love. In turn, he taught his dad courage and determination.

The Big Kid is a resource for parents, coaches, and student athletes alike.

Thomas Dahlborg is a former Parent Partnership program leader for the National Institute for Children's Health Quality (NICHQ), former student athlete, and a parent who became a coach. He has more than 35 years of experience leading, serving, and coaching in healthcare. Tom also volunteers for a wide range of non-profits and loves his time sponsoring and coaching young men's basketball.
